

Utopias of Nonviolence.
Ideas, Regulations, and Blindspots in Europe since 1945
1 & 2 December 2022

Svenja Goltermann, Jakob Odenwald, Annelie Ramsbrock, Franziska Rueedi

Please register by November 15 (nonviolence@hist.uzh.ch) as spaces are limited.

Workshop Programme/ Tagungsprogramm

Thursday, 1 December

13:00 – 13:15 Svenja Goltermann (Universität Zürich):
Introductory remarks/ Einführende Bemerkungen

13:15 – 15:00 Corinna Bittner (Universität zu Köln):
“Never again...” – Interpretations of Violence by Survivors of the Emsland
Camps between 1945 and 1960

Holger Nehring (University of Stirling):
Counter(-)Violence: The “Stigma of Violence” and the Utopia of Security in the West German Peace Movements from the 1950s into the 1980s

Christiane Reinecke (Europa-Universität Flensburg):
“Race Riots” and the (De)Legitimization of Violence in Public Debates and Activist Circles in late 20th-Century Britain and France

Moderation: Annelie Ramsbrock

15:30 – 16:45 Jakub Střelec (Charles University, Prague):
Violent crime as a Threat to the Post-war Order. A Comparison of Forensic Psychiatric Knowledge in Czechoslovakia and West Germany (1945-1970)

Hubertus Büschel (Universität Kassel):
Racializing Violence - Colonial Psychiatry and Western Ideologies of “the African Mind”

Moderation: Svenja Goltermann

Friday, 2 December

09:00 – 10:15 Aline Müller (Universität Genf):
Women's Peace Movement (1979-1983): Transnational Feminist Concepts and Practices of Nonviolence

Juliane Röleke (Leibnitz-Zentrum für Zeithistorische Forschung Potsdam):
The Northern Irish "Peace Women" and their Reception in West Germany throughout the 1970s

Moderation: Franziska Ruedi

10:45 – 12:00 Jennifer Crane (University of Oxford):
'We Just Want Our Children to be Safe': Experiential Expertise and Nonviolence in British Child Protection, 1960-2000

Jakob Odenwald (Universität Zürich):
Detached Children? "Aggression" and West German Family Policy during the 1970s and 1980s

Moderation: Svenja Goltermann

13:30 – 14:45 Sarah Jacobson (Leibnitz-Institut für Europäische Geschichte, Mainz):
(Non)Violence and the Marginalization of Migrant Participation in 1970s Housing Occupation Movements in Italy and West Germany

Annalisa Martin (Universität Greifswald):
Feminism and the German "Whore's Movement" in the 1970s and 1980s

Moderation: Catherine Davies

15:15 – 16:30 Annelie Ramsbrock (Universität Greifswald):
The "Significant Other" in the West German Penal System. On the Relationship of Inmates and Guards

Janosch Steuwer (Martin-Luther-Universität Halle-Wittenberg):
Adolescents - Perpetrators of Violence - Right-Wing Extremists. On the Emergence of Anti-Violence Training in the Federal Republic of Germany in the 1980s and 1990s

Moderation: Jakob Odenwald

16:30 – 17:00 Franziska Ruedi (Universität Zürich):
Final remarks/ Abschliessende Bemerkungen