

THE STUDY OF ANTISEMITISM IN SCANDINAVIA – WHERE ARE WE HEADING?

University of Greifswald, 5–7 February 2018

Department of History, Seminar Room 3.09, Domstraße 9a

Conference Programme

Monday, 5 February 2018

Arrival

18:00 Introduction by Cordelia Heß and Jonathan Adams followed by reception

Tuesday, 6 February 2018

8:45–9:00 Welcome and housekeeping

Session 1

9:00–9:45 Clemens Räthel: (Up-)Staging the Jew? Antisemitism and the performing arts in Scandinavia

9:45–10:30 Per Hammarström: Anti-Judaism or antisemitism? The Swedish Association for Mission among the Jews as a Case Study

10:30–11:00 Coffee break

Session 2

- 11:00–11:45 Paavo J. Ahonen: Ecclesiastical antisemitism in the Grand Duchy (1809–1917) and early Republic of Finland (1917–1933) and its effects on society and Christian self-understanding today
- 11:45–12:30 André Swanström: The influence of the Jäger movement on antisemitism within the Finnish political and military establishment in the early years of independence and the Finnish Waffen-SS volunteers
- 12:30–13:45 Lunch

Session 3

- 13:45–15:30 Short contributions and poster session
Harry Svensson: A Swedish Sonderweg
Mirko Harmel: Antisemitism in the Reformations of the North
Vibeke Moe: The image of the Jews among Muslims in contemporary Norway
- 15:30–16:00 Coffee break

Session 4

- 16:00–16:45 Lars Andersson: Comparisons and theoretical discussions as a way forward
- 19:00 Dinner

Wednesday, 7 February 2018

Session 5

- 9:00–9:45 Lars Dencik: Three distinct forms of antisemitism in today's Scandinavia
- 9:45–10:30 Laura Ekholm: Strategically positive history narrative and its pitfalls
- 10:30–11:00 Coffee break

Session 6

- 11:00–11:45 Simo Muir: The challenges of antisemitism historiography in Finland
11:45–12:30 Oula T. Silvennoinen: Antisemitism in Finland? Post-war silence and the new view

12:30–13:45 Lunch

Session 7

- 13:45–14:30 Lena Roos: Uppsala University: an ideal research environment for antisemitism studies?
14:30–15:15 Christhard Hoffmann: Research on antisemitism in contemporary Norway: the SHIFTBOUND-project (2017-2020)

15:15–15:45 Coffee break

Session 8

- 15:45–17:15 Concluding discussion

Session 9: Keynote

- 18:00 David Feldman: Research on antisemitism in the UK

19:00 Reception and dinner at Alfried Krupp Wissenschaftskolleg, Martin-Luther-Str. 14

Thursday, 8 February 2018

Departure